The finale to the BRRC trail runs for the year will be on Saturday September 18 at 8:00 AM in the Hereford Area of Gunpowder State Park off of Bunker Hill Road.

This event will feature a 50K Fat Ass run - no race fee and racers carry their own support. The course will pass the start several times so you can "freshen up" there, too. Other runners will have the option to do shorter trail races of 10.5 and 21 miles.

Registration is race day only, at the venue. Lines will be shorter if you detached the waiver below and bring it on race morning already filled out.

- Course is three 10 mile loops with about 1,000 ft of climbing per loop. There are a couple extended flat sections however. Course is 90% trails, primarily single-track.
- There is an 8 hour time limit, as race organizers would like to be home for dinner.
- Restrooms are available about 1/4 mile from the start.

Course Map Not Available

The course is on fire roads and single-track trails in the Hereford Area of Gunpowder State Park. Most of the course is densely shaded. The course is a loop of approximately 10 miles, which will be repeated depending which race you wish to complete.

BRRC trail races do not have on-course support. Plan to carry your own fluids as appropriate, and use common sense. There will be a communal water stop for this event, and participants are asked to bring one gallon of water for use at that stop.

There is an 8 hour time limit which applies for all the races.

Please go through mud rather than around it to avoid contributing to trail erosion.
